TITLE	CONSULTATION PAPER ON CRITERIA FOR QUALIFIED THIRD PARTY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Bank of International Settlement's final report titled "Report and Recommendations of the Cross-border Bank Resolution Group" issued in March 2010 ("the BIS Report") amongst others, recommended the following:

"National resolution authorities should have the legal authority to temporarily delay immediate operation of contractual early termination clauses in order to complete a transfer of certain financial market contracts to another sound financial institution, a bridge financial institution or other public entity. Where a transfer is not available, authorities should ensure that contractual rights to terminate, net, and apply pledged collateral are preserved. Relevant laws should be amended, where necessary, to allow a short delay in the operations of such termination clauses in order to promote the continuity of market functions."

(extract from Recommendation 9)

2. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

- 2.1 The Malaysia Deposit Insurance Corporation Act 2011 ("PIDM Act") allows Perbadanan Insurans Deposit Malaysia ("PIDM") to temporarily suspend ("temporary suspension period") the right of the counterparty to a qualified financial agreement ("QFA")ⁱ from terminating the agreement under the following circumstances:

- (a) pursuant to subsection 115(3) of the PIDM Act, upon the assumption of control of a failing member institution ("MI") by PIDM or its appointed person or upon the appointment of a receiver over a failing MI; or
- (b) pursuant to subsections 180(1) and 180(2) of the PIDM Act, upon the appointment of a conservator over an Affected Person ("AP").ⁱⁱ

- 2.2 During the temporary suspension period, PIDM may do the following:

- (a) with regard to MIs, transfer or declare in writing that it will transfer QFAs to a bridge institution or a qualified third party ("QTP"). The effect of the transfer is that the QFAs may only be terminated against the bridge institution or the QTP in accordance with its terms, as if the agreement had always been with the bridge institution or QTP, and not the failing MI; and

TITLE	CONSULTATION PAPER ON CRITERIA FOR QUALIFIED THIRD PARTY

- (b) with regard to the AP, consent to the transfer of such agreements to a QTP. Where PIDM consents to such transfer, neither the transfer nor the appointment of the conservator can be construed as giving rise to the right of the counterparty to terminate the QFAs, exercise any right of set off under the QFAs, or exercise any remedy or right against the AP or its assets.

There will be no “cherry picking” of the QFAs by PIDM for purposes of the transfer.

- 2.3 If the QFAs are not transferred within the temporary suspension period, the counterparty may then exercise its rights in accordance with the terms of the agreements.

3. QUALIFIED THIRD PARTY

- 3.1 PIDM issued a Consultation Paper on 30 June 2010 (“the 2010 Consultation Paper”)ⁱⁱⁱ that, amongst others, proposed for the ability for PIDM to transfer qualified financial transactions (as referred to in the 2010 Consultation Paper) to QTPs in the PIDM Act.
- 3.2 On the proposal to transfer the qualified financial transactions to a QTP, several respondents to the 2010 Consultation Paper requested that the criteria for QTP be provided to the industry for consultation prior to them being published in the Gazette.
- 3.3 The ability for PIDM to transfer QFAs to QTP is now part of the PIDM Act, and subsection 2(1) of the PIDM Act defines QTP as “a corporation that meets such criteria as may be prescribed by the Corporation”.
- 3.4 In its response^{iv} to the feedback on the 2010 Consultation Paper, PIDM responded that it will carry out relevant consultations prior to the implementation of the criteria for QTP.

4. OBJECTIVE

- 4.1 The objective of this consultation paper is to seek views and comments on the proposed criteria for QTP.
- 4.2 The discussion in Section 6 sets out the proposed criteria for the parties to whom the QFAs may be transferred in the following situations:
 - (a) where PIDM or its appointed person assumes control of a failing MI pursuant to paragraph 99(1)(c) or a receiver is appointed in respect of a failing MI pursuant to paragraph 99(1)(d) of the PIDM Act; and
 - (b) where PIDM appoints a conservator over an AP pursuant to subsection 161(1) of the PIDM Act.

5. THE CONSULTATION PROCESS

- 5.1 PIDM hereby invites written comments from interested parties on the proposals and issues raised in this consultation paper.
- 5.2 Written comments should be submitted no later than 15 September 2011 to:

6. PROPOSED CRITERIA FOR QUALIFIED THIRD PARTY

Proposed Criteria in Relation to Member Institutions

6.1 A QTP which would be eligible to assume QFAs from a failing MI may be any one of the following entities:

- (a) an institution licensed under the Banking And Financial Institutions Act 1989, the Islamic Banking Act 1983, the Insurance Act 1996, the Takaful Act 1984 or the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002; or
- (b) a foreign financial institution; or
- (c) a public entity or an entity which the Government of Malaysia or PIDM has provided guarantees for the performance of the QFAs.

6.2 The rationale for the respective proposed criterion is set out below:

- (a) An institution licensed under the Banking And Financial Institutions Act 1989, the Islamic Banking Act 1983, the Insurance Act 1996, the Takaful Act 1984 or the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002

PIDM envisages that QFAs that have been entered into by the failing MI may be packaged together with the sale of the MI's other assets and liabilities during the resolution process. Local licensed institutions are likely to be a category of candidates interested to acquire assets and liabilities (including QFAs) of failing institutions. A licensed institution for this purpose would include an existing licensed institution or an entity which Bank Negara Malaysia has agreed to license as a licensed institution.

- (b) A foreign financial institution

This criterion will allow PIDM to transfer QFAs (e.g. non Malaysian Ringgit denominated derivatives) to foreign financial institutions that do not have licensed operations in Malaysia, in the event that such transfer is deemed appropriate to avert an adverse impact to the stability of the Malaysian financial system.

(c) A public entity or an entity which the Government of Malaysia or PIDM has provided guarantees for the performance of the QFAs

Similar to the rationale in point (b) above, this criterion is to cater for the situation where the QFAs need to be transferred in order to avert an adverse impact to the Malaysian financial system caused by the unwinding of the QFAs of the failing MI.

A transfer to a public entity is in line with the recommendation of the BIS Report which states that “national resolution authorities should have the legal authority to temporarily delay immediate operation of contractual early termination clauses in order to complete a transfer of certain financial market contracts to another sound financial institution, a bridge financial institution or other public entity”.

The criterion also caters for the transfer to an entity where the Government of Malaysia or PIDM has provided guarantees for the performance of the QFAs – this may include an asset management company assuming the operating assets of the failing MI.

Feedback Required No.1:

We welcome your feedback with regard to the proposed criteria for QTP in relation to MIs as set out above.

Proposed Criteria in Relation to Affected Persons

- 6.3 Any party who is willing to assume the QFAs of the APs would be eligible to do so.
- 6.4 The rationale for the proposed criterion is that the type of QFAs entered into by APs can be very diverse depending on the nature of the business that the APs are involved in.

Feedback Required No. 2:

We welcome your feedback on how the proposed criterion for QTP in relation to APs could be further defined given the diverse nature of the QFAs that APs may be exposed to.

Feedback Required No. 3:

We welcome your feedback on the scope of agreements of MIs and APs that are subjected to the potential transfer to a QTP.

7. RESPONSES

- 7.1 The views and comments of interested parties are sought in relation to the proposals and issues above.
